PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
MACON, MISSISSIPPI

Helen pink is the newest color. This will no doubt make Alice blue.

Australia wants the world to know that it runs a meat market of its own.

Reports indicate that it takes two hobbles to make one "harem" skirt.

Some of the season's new hats will look well if they surround a pretty face.

The Chicago millionaire who has turned artist can at least draw beautiful checks.

It is to be noted that all those pictures of smiling girls in aeroplanes are taken on the ground.

Luther Burbank can do a great deal with fruits and vegetables but he has never yet turned out a winterless winter.

President Fallieres of France gets a salary of $700,000, and the sum sounds even bigger when expressed in francs.

Physicians who are successfully using hydrant water as an anesthetic will fail to score a hit with the manufacturing chemists.

A Cleveland man has been robbed of $2,400 which he kept in a dishpan. He ought to have had it hidden under the rubber plant.

Will prison sentences stop women from smuggling, or will society look upon the brief detention as merely an interesting diversion?

Still some men would rather bear a 40,000 word hypothetical question than an angry wife's: "Well, where have you been till now?"

Though a Chicago man has paid $10,000 for a young bull calf frugal persons will hesitate to purchase their porterhouse steaks on the hoof.

Chicago is thinking of changing the names of her streets. While they are at it they might also change the appearance of many of them, with profit.

London has produced a comic opera without music. This is indeed a novelty, although they've been producing some comic operas without the comedy over here for some time.

"Don't eat when you're tired," says an eastern physician. On the other hand, never go to bed hungry, we are elsewhere advised. Life is getting rather badly mixed.

A California girl offers to sell to the government Lincoln pennies for $1 each. Next thing we know she will be asking someone to give her two tens for a five.

A man who was put in the Tombs prison for carrying concealed weapons was robbed while there of $600. Investigation might disclose the presence of thieves in the institution.

The New Jersey architect who designed a schoolhouse without any stairway evidently thought that the district should be up-to-date and bring in its upper floor scholars by airships.

Probably the woman who hid her tin's savings in the cellar and awoke to find them stolen has reached the conclusion that our national banks are not the most risky things in the world.

Los Angeles has an 80-year-old citizen who says he will wed when he has reached the century mark. At any rate, it can hardly be said that he is rushing precipitately into matrimony.

A Pennsylvania justice has upheld the right of a wife to paint. The dispute had nothing to do with her earning a living by devoting herself to art, but was one involving her own facial decoration.

A savant breaks into print with the startling statement that "sowing wild oats" is harmful to youths. Let us hope the savant is not laboring under the impression that he has uttered a new thought.

Robbers broke into a jail in Pennsylvania a few nights ago and robbed the only prisoner of $20. People who go to jail in Pennsylvania should take the precaution of leaving their valuables at the desk.

New York aldermen have rejected a bill limiting the length of hat pins. Done in self-defense. No doubt every one of them had to go back home and face a woman armed with a couple of the dangerous things.

The kissing microbe has been often attacked as pernicious, but it is to be feared that people can no more be persuaded to give up the ancient practice of osculation than they can be made shy of accepting money which is suspected of conveying germs.

A convict in Texas became so ill that a surgical operation was found necessary, when the cause of the trouble was discovered to be a $300 stolen diamond. The convict will now temporarily push the restaurant pearl-fishery oyster out of the limelight.

POLL TAX DELINQUENTS

An Act to require Tax Collectors of the State to have published a list of the names of all persons delinquent for poll taxes after the first day of February in each year.

The State of Mississippi, Noxubee County.

This day personally appeared before me, John A. Tyson, Clerk of the Chancery Court in and for said county, A. D. Binion, tax collector for said county, who makes oath, to the best of his knowledge and belief, that the within and foregoing list contains a true and perfect list of all persons who have not paid their poll taxes for the year 1910, on or before the first day of February, 1911.

A. D. BINATION, Tax Collector.

By W. P. MINOR, Deputy.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 27th day of March, 1911.

JOHN A. TYSON,

Chancery Clerk of Noxubee County, Mississippi.
